Litter Overall:

The Abigail litter are very self-sufficient and confident and they are appropriately social with other dogs and one another. They show no stress when put into new situations or when their environment or surroundings change. They also show no stress when put into situations that could be stressful. Abigail litter react appropriately to new sights and sounds being curious and investigative. They possess good focus problem-solving abilities and memory. They also show motivation for toys food and interaction which help make training a bit easier. This litter overall is appropriate being tolerant to handling and restraint although at times they can be a bit wiggly and excitable. They have good bite inhibition and are rarely vocal. They show no red flags for possessiveness and have a mid to moderate energy level. These puppies balance interaction and the ability to be left alone. The litter is very consistent overall. There are some variances between individuals listed below.

Individual Notes:

Abigail blue is the most personable and interactive of the litter. He worked to cuddle and get in the lap. He worked to keep attention on him. He has a mid to moderate energy level and he is confident and self-assured. He is also playful and a bit silly. He would do best in a more interactive home.
