Litter Overall:

Overall, the Hayden litter is confident and self-assured. Unless otherwise noted, they are appropriately social in their interactions with people, with other dogs, littermates and with cats. They showed little to no stress in new situations, around new people or in circumstances that would typically be considered stressful. They react appropriately to new sights and sounds and are curious and investigative. This litter has good focus memory and problem-solving abilities. They have good motivations for food, Interaction and toys. These puppies have very good bite inhibition and rarely use their mouth. They are rarely vocal. They show no red flags and show no possessiveness. They are very comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. This litter is very consistent from puppy to puppy. Differences between puppies are listed below.

Individual Notes:

He has mid energy level. He is a bit unsure where to start in new situations, but will adjust on his own if allowed. He is content to explore and play on his own. He is very gentle and respectful. He is personable and affectionate. He's playful and motivated by food and interaction. He is interested in toys. He would be suited in a home that isn't going to be overwhelming initially and that will give him a chance to adjust.
