Litter Overall:

The Madison litter over all is confident and self-assured although a couple of puppies needed a little time to adjust in a new situation. They were appropriately social with other dogs and one another. They showed little to no stress in new situations and around new people. They showed no stress when put into situations that would normally be considered stressful. They reacted appropriately to sights and sounds. They are curious and investigative. They have good focus, memory and problem-solving abilities. They have a good motivations for food and interaction. They are mostly interested in toys. They are appropriate in their interactions with people. They are very tolerant and comfortable with handling and restraint. They have good bite inhibition and rarely using their mouth. No puppy has a red flag. They show no possessiveness. The litter overall was fairly consistent.

Individual Notes:

Green has a mid-level energy. He is confident and self-assured. He needs a minute to adjust in a new situation. He is content to explore and play on his own. He is playful, curious and motivated by food, toys and interaction. He is very personable and affectionate. He is very sweet and gentle. He has no extremes in temperament and would be well-suited in most any home.
