Litter Overall:

The Merriam litter overall are confident and self-assured. They showed minimal stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances that are typically considered stressful. They react appropriately to new sites and sounds, recovering quickly if they startle while being curious and investigate. They are socially appropriate with other dogs, with one another, and with cats. They are appropriate in their interactions with people, rarely using their mouth in play. When they do use their mouth it is fairly gentle. They are rarely vocal. They have no red flags and show no possessiveness. This litter has very good tolerance to handling and restraint. They have good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities. They have good motivations for interaction, food, and toys.

Individual Notes:

Blue has moderate energy. He is confident and self-assured. He is content to explore and play on his own. He is very personable and playful. He is curious and motivated by interaction, food, and toys. He is very gentle with handling and interaction. He is a little more independent than some of his littermates, but would still be well-suited in most any home.

Health notes:

Blue has no health notes.
