Individual Notes:

Montana orange is very confident and self-assured. He shows no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. He is socially appropriate in his interactions with litter mates, cats, and with other dogs. He is curious and investigative with new sites and sounds, including those that should be considered startling. He is socially appropriate in his interactions with people. He has excellent bite inhibition when he does use his mouth to initiate or engage in play. These puppies overall have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. They actively seek out this type of interaction. These puppies are fairly consistent with very few differences between them. Differences will become more pronounced as they have different learning and social experiences. All of these puppies have mid to moderate energy. They are bubbly, happy, social, and eager. They are playful.

Health notes:

Orange has no health notes.
