7wk:

This Serena litter overall is confident and self-assured with a couple of exceptions of puppies that need a little time to adjust. They are appropriately social with other dogs and one another. They showed little to no stress in new situations, around new people or in situations that would be typically considered stressful. A couple of the puppies needed some time to adjust to newness. They react appropriately to new sights and sound. They are curious and investigative. They have good focus, memory and problem-solving abilities. They also have good motivations for toys, food and interaction. They are appropriate in their interactions with people. They are rarely vocal and rarely use their mouth. They are all comfortable and tolerant for handling and restraint. They show no red flags and have no possessiveness.

Individual Notes:

Serena Pink has mid to moderate energy. She is confident and self-assured. She is content to explore and play on her own, although she prefers to be with people. She is playful, curious and motivated by interaction, food and toys. She is very bubbly, happy and personable. She is affectionate, gentle and calm with interaction. She has no extremes in temperament. She would be well-suited in most any home.

Health notes:

Pink has no health notes.
